

"Realizing The Strength of Women"
Texas Federation of Republican Women
Leadership Workshop
Saturday, February 28, 2009

Region VIII of the Texas Federation of Republican Women which is comprised of Senate Districts 28, 30 and 31, met in Lubbock Saturday, February 28, for a Leadership Workshop conducted by State TFRW officials. Toni Anne Dashiele, President of TFRW, led the program which included discussion topics about Leadership, Campaign Activities, Growing the Local Republican Women's Organization, Fundraising, Programs, Awards and Publications. Presenters were Juandell Lacy Roberts, TFRW Deputy President; Rhonda Lacy, TFRW Chaplain; Hazel Roman, TRFW Vice President; and Debra Coffey, TFRW District Director from Ft. Worth.

State Representative of District 84, Carl Isett, addressed the approximately 65 attendees on topics relative to current issues before the State Legislature, such as Voter I.D. and the federal stimulus plan. Lubbock County Republican Party Chairman Chris Winn encouraged Republican women to remain positive and excited at the prospects for growth of the Party during the current political climate.

Jane Cansino, Lubbock, the TFRW District Director of SD 28 made the arrangements for the workshop. Special appreciation to McDougal Realtors for making the Conference Center available and State Comptroller Susan Combs for providing lunch.

The Lubbock Area Republican Women's Organization meets the 3rd Thursday of each month. Please check the LARW link on this web site for membership information.
